

Michael Hawkins

Director
mhawkins@claytonmckervervey.com

Human Resources

As a director in the firm's human resource group, Michael is responsible for designing, developing, and implementing effective people strategies to continuously improve the Firm's employee engagement, culture, and succession. His role includes the strategic direction and oversight of all major HR functions inclusive of talent management, learning and development, performance management, succession planning, compensation, benefits, employee relations, & DEI.

Specializations

- » Organizational Development
- » Talent Management
- » Process Improvement
- » Performance Management
- » Customer Service
- » Employee Relations

Education

- » Bachelor of Science in Human Resource Development, Oakland University
- » Lean/Six Sigma Green Belt, Pawley Lean Institute, Oakland University

Connections in the Business Community

- » Michigan Society for Human Resource Management
- » Prime Global
- » Michigan Career Educator & Employer Alliance

